FORA BANK confirms its status as an efficient and profitable bank

FORA BANK (part of Tashir Group) has been ranked 85th in this year's Russian Banks rankings by Kommersant. The rankings are put together based on key indicators as of January 1, 2021.

The bank has increased its assets by 13.9% from last year, which helped it move up four spots higher this year.

The rankings, put together by the Interfax Economic Analysis Center and published in the Banks supplement to Kommersant Daily (Issue 51, March 25, 2021), are based on assets under management, own capital, individual savings, net profit and the loan portfolio.

FORA BANK has been part of Tashir Group since 2002. It is a joint-stock commercial bank registered with the Central Bank of the Russian Federation on May 27, 1992, and operating throughout Russia.
