Tashir Group and Comedy Club Production team up to mark Yerevan's 2800th anniversary

Tashir Group and Comedy Club Production signed an agreement to organise a Comedy Club festival in the capital of Armenia with the participation of all residents of the project and the stars of show business, sports, music and cinema. Among the festival's other partners are Fora Bank, multinational shopping centre chain RIO and movie theatre chain Cinema Star.

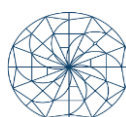

The event will take place on Sep. 15-16 at The Karen Demirchyan JCC "Amalir". Garik Martirosyan will return to the stage, who together with Pavel Volya will communicate with the guests. It is noteworthy that this will happen in the jubilee year, which is important for Yerevan. Thus, the first in the history of the Comedy Club festival in Armenia will bring its cheerful note to a great holiday for the city and its residents.

“It's a great honour to us to have Tashir Group as general partner for the first-ever Comedy Club festival in Armenia. I hope this will be another milestone in the long history of our cooperation,” said Comedy Club Production CEO Andrey Levin.

“We always look at reliability when choosing partners, and we greatly respect Comedy Club Production for taking this festival to Armenia. I am positive that the event will be one of the biggest gifts the Armenian capital will receive for its 2800th anniversary and that it will make the people of Yerevan very happy and will present positive emotions not only to the people of Armenia, but also to the audience all over the world,” Tashir Group First Vice President Hayk Ignatyan said.
