Tashir will hold the second Armenian Business Forum in Yerevan

On September 20, Yerevan will host the leading annual business conference - Armenian Business Forum (ABF) 2022, which will be held for the second year in a row with the support of the Tashir Group of Companies. Armenian Businessmen Association (ABA) - the organizer of the forum, will bring together entrepreneurs from various sectors of medium and large businesses from Armenia and a number of other countries.

This year, the main agenda of ABF 2022 will be “Armenia's role as a bridge between Europe and Asia in an era of global economic challenges”. The event will create opportunities for dialogue, exchange of experience, consolidation of efforts to create sustainable partnerships between countries in the new economic realities. The program of the event includes industry round tables and panel discussions with industry leaders and representatives of large businesses.

In addition, the winners of the Buissup Global Forum 2022 will be announced at ABF 2022, who will be entitled to receive investments and use them to develop their own projects. At the same time, the forum will provide an opportunity to attract investment for operating business projects selected by the Jury of Experts. On September 20, they will be presented at the forum, and the best among them will receive the support of the residents of the Association.

The Armenian Business Forum was initiated by the Armenian Businessmen Association in 2021 to promote businesses and develop investment opportunities in Armenia. Last year, ABF proved to be an effective platform for an open dialogue between various business communities, start-ups and established entrepreneurs from Russia and Armenia. Last year's event brought together over 500 participants, including official representatives of Armenian government and other countries.
