Leaders of Tashir in CRE-100 rating of most influential persons in commercial real estate

Samvel Karapetyan, the president and founder of Tashir Group topped the ranking of the most influential commercial real estate owners, published in the CRE -100 magazine. The ten most influential persons in commercial real estate also included vice-president of Tashir, Vitaly Efimkin, who took 7th place in the rating.

The annual CRE-100 rating is based on performance and achievements of the person and the company for 2013 and the beginning of 2014. Traditionally the edition has 11 sections, each representing the most influential persons in the Russian commercial real estate market in a particular category, from administration to company management, totalling 100 people.
