"Tashir" Group among the leaders of the Russian economy in 2016

For the second year in a row Tashir Group is ranked among RBK magazine's «Russia's Top 500 private companies 2016».

Having occupied the 62nd place in the ranking "Tashir" has risen by 5 points with a 165 billion rubles high index up revenue for 2015, which is more than the previous year by 23%.

Once again the Group showed the best results among Russian commercial property developers.

RBC's first rating was released in September 2015. Key indicators are revenue, excluding VAT, government and transport duties. It is to be noted that only Russian companies were assigned ranking positions. According to RBC, the total revenue of all ranked participants in this year exceeded 63,6 trillion rubles, which is more than in the previous year by 13%.

Arkady Raikin Russian State Theater Satiricon

The theater was founded in 1939 by the People's Artist of the USSR Arkady Isaakovich Raikin in Leningrad. Having become widely known among lovers of drama, in 1982 it came to Moscow, settling in the Tajikistan movie theater building. Reconstruction stretched over several years. In 2015 the Government of Moscow decided to renovate the building of the legendary theater at 2, Sheremetyevskaya Street as a part of its theater construction, rebuilding and repair program. Tashir Group became the general contractor for the reconstruction, which will double the building's area, expand functionality by completely modernizing its technical systems and installing new utilities. The project further involves an expansion of the theater complex, creation of an administration building and a Museum of the Russian Variety Arts. The reborn Satiricon will greet audiences in 2017.
