Seasons: the second restaurant opens in Moscow

Tashir Group opens its second Seasons restaurant in Moscow to celebrate haute cuisine.

The project has enriched the Group's branded family restaurants portfolio that Tashir has been developing for 15 years now. The new restaurant covers a total of 530 sq m and is spacious and light with panoramic windows and a cozy atmosphere perfect for family parties.

The second Seasons sticks to the key concept of gourmet cuisine that varies its menu depending on what's in season and offers a vast choice of the best fresh produce available.

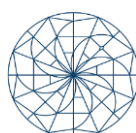

Tashir Group has been developing its restaurant business since 1999. Its largest projects include Forbest and Celentano in Moscow as well as the legendary Aragvi restaurant Tashir is currently completing reconstruction and restoration of. Tashir's another key asset in restaurant business is the Grand Food international corporation with 115 fast food outlets throughout Russia.

The first Seasons restaurant with the GBA of over 1K sq m opened in 2013 at the RIO Mall in Leninsky Avenue.
